Parent Meetings: Each family will have a meeting with part of the therapy staff to discuss observations and recommendations for continued growth/success of your child based on all represented disciplines. These meetings will be approximately an hour in length and will be audio-taped for your convenience. Please watch at camp for times to sign up. Assistants will come to your cabin and watch your child(ren) during your allotted meeting time.

This schedule is intended to be a sample only, to give families/caregivers an idea of what to expect during their time at camp. Actual schedules will be distributed 2-3 weeks before camp, and may be altered as needed up to and during camp.
